LUSAKA GOLDSMITHS UNIVERSITY STUDENTS' WELFARE AND AFFAIRS POLICY

FOREWORD

Lusaka Goldsmiths University College believes in creating an environment that fosters students' full potential in their academic endeavours. The welfare of the university's students is at the core of the university to ensuring effective learning and personal development of our students. Lusaka Goldsmiths University Student Welfare and Affairs Policy is designed to ensure a conducive environment for teaching and learning which enhances the students' academic development.

The policy also endeavours to promote a cordial learning and teaching environment for both the staff and the students of the university. The policy therefore promotes a culture for students to appreciate what their role is in their academic development pursuits and to know what the expectations from them are during their period study with the university.

The policy shall therefore promote for both the staff and students, an environment both in the lecture rooms and outside, where the skills and knowledge to be acquired shall be relevant and valuable towards the positive contribution of the university's graduates to the communities they come from, in line with the vision and mission of the university.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Policy Statement

Lusaka Goldsmiths University College endeavours to create an environment that is conducive for our students and inspires a culture of learning and research for both the students and staff. LGU recognises that a healthy and safe environment brings out the potential in the students to attain higher goals in their academic endeavours.

This policy does not only endeavour to promote a conducive learning environment for students, but also to inculcate in students of LGU a sense of responsibility and a culture of respect for one another and discipline both on and outside campus as, the conduct of the students of the university reflects directly on the university. LGU students are therefore guided in terms of the expected conduct and behaviour which also aligns to the university's Student Charter.

1.2 Policy Aims

The aims of this policy are to provide a working document that is intended to provide a framework for attending to the welfare and affair of LGU students. It is designed to allow for assistance and guidance to be accorded to students to assist them in their quest to attain their academic goals while with the university. The policy further aims to stimulate in LGU students a culture of responsibility and accountability to themselves and those around them and adherence to the ethos of the university.

Lusaka Goldsmiths University shall endeavour to provide an environment that enables students to:

- a) Have free intellectual enquiry
- b) Have free expression in academic and intellectual matters
- c) Know that their rights and freedoms are acknowledged

1.3 Scope

LGU Students' Welfare and Affairs policy provides for a number of students' needs. The policy extends to students' conduct within the University premises, events of the university or sponsored by the university. The policy equally applies to conduct off-campus that may adversely affect the University community or the realisation of the university's vision, mission and core values. The scholarship provisions apply to students who demonstrate need as ascertained by the scholarship committee. The student representation provisions apply to student leadership and promoting an environment that enables students to voice their views and ensures that all students have an equal opportunity and ability to participate in any way that they can. The Counselling provisions shall apply to students with mental health problems and encourage them to seek help without stigmatization. The career guidance provisions are aimed at preparing students for progression to employment or higher education programs. Lusaka Goldsmiths University shall endeavour to support students welfare through the provision of the following services; chaplaincy, accommodation, catering, clubs and societies, security, health care, sports, games and entertainment.

1.4 Policy Objectives

This Policy aims to address the needs of students and behavioural matters within the university through:

- (a). Ensuring students' behaviour conforms to the university's set standards as set out in the different university codes of conduct for students.
- (b). Ensuring an equitable and quality learning environment where students reach their best potential in their academic pursuits.
- (c). Ensuring an environment where students commit to a co-existence that promotes respect and cordiality with staff and fellow students.
- (e). Establishing and outline an objective, unbiased process for the application, evaluation, approval and disbursement of the scholarship fund.
- (f). Providing eligibility requirements and criteria for receiving assistance from the scholarship fund.

1.5 Legal and Regulatory Framework

- i. The Constitution of Zambia
- ii. Lusaka Goldsmiths University Students' Charter
- iii. Lusaka Goldsmiths University Statutes (once effected)
- iv. Lusaka Goldsmiths University Code of Ethical Conduct
- v. Lusaka Goldsmiths University Examinations Management Policy

2. THE POLICIES

2.1 Students' Conduct

a. Commitment to Learning

Lusaka Goldsmiths University recognizes that students are admitted to the University for the purpose of learning. Students are therefore not expected to act in a way that interferes directly or indirectly with their learning and that of their colleagues or obstruct staff from carrying out their duties. Students are expected to develop and use adult learning skills and take responsibility for their own learning.

This commitment to learning includes:

- Regularly attending classes and activities on time.
- Meeting all learning and assessment expectations and due dates.
- Acting honestly and fairly in undertaking tests, assessments, reports or other work.
- Openly discuss any questions or issues about their progress with their course lecturers.

b. Respect

As registered students of the University, all students can expect a safe and enjoyable learning environment that enables them to realise their potential. In order to achieve this, the staff and students alike, will be required to act respectfully toward others.

This requires that students should be:

- honest
- treat people with courtesy, consideration and sensitivity
- respect the lawful beliefs and customs of others
- communicate openly and using appropriate language
- follow the reasonable instructions from University staff

Students shall also have a right to enjoy the facilities at the University. In order to protect this right all students shall be expected to respect University property. Any act of misuse, vandalism, theft, malicious or unwarranted damage, defacing, disfiguring or unsafe or unauthorized use of property is in violation of the Code of Ethical Conduct, and may be a violation of the relevant Laws of Zambia.

University property includes but is not limited to the following: Buildings, Plant and Equipment, Telephones, Vehicles, Learning Materials, Library Materials, Computer Hardware, Software and other Technologies, Fire Alarms and Equipment, Safety and Security Devices and Farm produce.

c. Bullying

Lusaka Goldsmiths University acknowledges that students of the university have the right to be free from harassment while engaging in activities undertaken as part of their enrolment as a student/or other association with the University. Types of bullying include, but not limited to: loud and abusive language, unjustified criticism and insults, yelling and screaming, unexplained rages, bribery or blackmail, humiliation, belittling or undermining of a person.

Students should report any incidents of bullying to the Office of the Dean of Students Affairs or other designated office.

d. Sexual Harassment

Lusaka Goldsmiths University students have the right to learn in an environment which is free from sexual harassment. Harassment of a sexual nature is not tolerated at the University and is unlawful under the Laws of Zambia.

Within the provisions of this policy, sexual harassment shall be taken as “any unwelcome behaviour which is sexual in nature and which involves improper assumptions by one person in respect of another”. Sexual harassment can take numerous forms including but not limited to:

- Unwelcome physical touching, hugging or kissing
- Leering at someone, or at parts of their body
- Suggestive comments or jokes
- Insults or taunts based on sex
- Sexually explicit pictures, e-mails or text messages
- Intrusive questions or comments about a person’s private life or body

Students should report any incidents of sexual harassment to the Office of the Dean of Students or any other designated office.

e. Safety

Lusaka Goldsmiths University actively promotes the safety, health and welfare of students and those members of the public who lawfully use University facilities. Students must ensure their own personal safety at all times. Students must take reasonable care for their own health and safety on campus and avoid harming the health or risking the safety of others. University safety procedures must be adhered to, including participation in all Fire and Emergency Evacuation drills.

Students should immediately advise a University staff member if they have concerns for their personal safety whilst participating in training or on University grounds.

f. Dress Code

Lusaka Goldsmiths University has, as one of its core aims, to prepare students for the world of work and positive contributors to the wellbeing of their communities. It is therefore expected that whilst participating in University activities students will dress in a manner that is neat, clean and safe, as would be expected in the workplace.

This includes:

- Wearing clothing in accordance with occupational health and safety requirements. This applies to working in laboratories, plants, farm, workshops or any other facility that requires specific occupational health and safety dress.
- Wearing footwear within and around University campuses at all times.
- Not wearing any clothing that is likely to offend others because of slogans, cartoons, or any symbol or graphic work to provoke, intimidate, condemn or ridicule others; or because of its lack of decency, modesty or cleanliness.
- Some courses require a specific uniform, i.e. Nursing, Hospitality and Beauty. Students should therefore get these details from their course facilitators at the time of induction.

g. Illnesses

During the time of study, students may develop an illness or become sick.

- Should this occur prior to classes commencing, students (or parents/guardians) are asked to contact the University to advise that they will not be attending class (and if known, state the period of time that they are expected to be away).
- If the sickness develops during the day, the student may ask to leave class early to seek for medical attention.
- If the student is under 18, parents/guardians will need to be contacted to arrange for the student to be picked up from the campus.
- If no contact can be made, the student must be sent to the Office of the Dean of Students for further assistance.

In cases where students are attending class and they are deemed to have a contagious illness or disorder, students will be asked to leave class so that other students are not at risk of developing the same illness/disorder. If the student is under 18, parents/guardians will need to be contacted to arrange for the student to be picked up from the campus.

If a student is deemed as having a contagious illness or disorder prior to going on industrial attachment/practicum/teaching practice, they may be advised that they cannot undertake this activity as they may also affect external persons that may be in contact with them.

h. Smoking

Lusaka Goldsmiths University is a smoke-free zone. Designated smoking areas for those wishing to smoke shall be made available.

i. Drugs and Alcohol

Lusaka Goldsmiths University operates a drugs and alcohol free policy. The university will not allow students to enter University grounds whilst under the influence of drugs or alcohol. This includes entering the library or places for practical.

A student suspected to be under the influence of drugs or alcohol shall be subject of disciplinary action in accordance with the University Code of Ethical Conduct.

2.2 Vulnerable Students and Financial Assistance

Lusaka Goldsmiths University recognizes importance of the basic needs of life such as food, shelter etc. and believes that a student's ability to achieve their academic potential would be impaired where they lack the basic essential needs of life. As such, the university shall endeavour, through the scholarship committee, to assist vulnerable students to live a normal student life with assistance towards their tuition and where possible, other basic necessities.

The following principles shall apply in determining a student's need and eligibility for assistance.
